VOL. XXVI. No. 13 BOSTON, MASS., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1906 PRICE THREE CENTS

PRIZES FOR STUDENTS.

Interest in Mercantile Marine to be Aroused by Competitive Essays.

Prizes aggregating $1,000 are offered by the Merchant Marine League of the United States, at Cleveland, Ohio, for the four best essays on "How To Build Up Our Shipping In The Foreign Trade," only students in high schools, technology schools, colleges, and universities in the United States being eligible to compete. There will be four prizes, viz: one of $400, one of $300, one of $200, and one of $100. Students desiring to compete for these prizes must register their names, and the institutions of learning which they are attending, with the League, in order to have their essays considered. The names of the judges will be shortly announced, at which time the prize money will be on deposit in the Central National Bank, of Cleveland, subject to the order of the judges who will award the prizes. Essays must not exceed 2,500 words; they must be type-written, on one side of the paper only. The author's name must not be signed to his essay — only his nom-de-plume — which latter, with his full name and address, must accompany the essay in a separate sealed envelope. No limitation is set upon the method or plan that may be advocated. The contests will close about Nov. 15, and the prizes will be awarded about Dec. 15, 1906.

The up-building of our shipping in the foreign trade has been a subject of national prominence for many years. It has engaged the attention of Presidents of the United States, Congress, public bodies and of the press, but remains unsettled, while our shipping in the foreign trade today is less than it was in 1810—but one-third what it was in 1861. Two years ago, upon President Roosevelt's recommendations, a Congressional Commission was appointed to investigate the subject, its voluminous report being a Congressional document.

Public documents, speeches made in the Senate and House, a bibliograph issued by the Librarian of Congress, the latter cataloguing the publications extant bearing upon this subject, may be obtained through senators and representatives in Congress, and the Merchant Marine League will send its documents to all who apply for them.

This league was formed by men having no direct or personal interest in our deep sea shipping, but who are imbued with a patriotic desire to aid in hastening the enactment of such legislation as will place American ships once more upon the seas, and the offer of these prizes is made for the purpose of arousing wide-spread public interest in the condition and needs of our foreign-going merchant marine, and to bring out the best thought on the subject, as well as the best plan by which to accomplish our maritime rehabilitation.

Mrs. Harry A. Rogers announces the engagement of her daughter, Annie F., to Prof. E. E. A. Winslow of the Biological Department.

1910 ATHLETIC PROSPECTS.

Encouraging reports from the Relay Team but Tug-of-War still makes poor showing.

The candidates for the Freshman Relay Team have been working on the track for the last four weeks. About fifteen men have been reporting regularly, and the prospect of turning out a good team is promising. The men have not been kept at work on the 220 exclusively, but have been tried at various events, anticipatory of the Fall Handicap Meet. As soon as this is over the team go to work under the direction of Mr. Hugh McGrath and will run on the track of the Charlesbay Gymnasium. The candidates who have been out, have shown excellent spirit and no little speed, and Mr. McGrath, who has secured remarkable results with the teams he has trained in previous years, has every expectation of turning out another winning team. He relies not on a few stars but on the general consistent ability of the men.

With the tug-o-war team the situation is entirely different. Here the outlook is very discouraging. There have been hardly enough men out to make up the full number. Everybody seems to be working for the team except the freshmen. Only about fifteen men have been out regularly and are in any fit condition to pull in a contest. Some new men have come out lately, but they have had to begin at the beginning, and have set the whole team back by their tardiness.

The time of the contest is now drawing near. It is only a little over three weeks away and all that time will be needed to get men into condition. The situation is this. The fifteen men, previously referred to, are highly efficient. If a sufficient number of freshmen come out right away to back them up, 1910 may still put a good team into the field. If this support is not immediately forthcoming, then the chance of making a creditable showing in the tug-o-war is very, very small.

Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Thos. Van Ness of the Second Church of Boston, Unitarian, Copley Square, will give a series of three addresses before the Technology Young Men's Christian Association in the Parish Hall of Trinity Church. Dr. Van Ness, last year, gave a very vivid and interesting description of his visit to Count Tolstoi in Russia. He has not yet announced the subjects of the present series of addresses, the first of which will be given next Thursday noon at 1.30 o'clock.

TARGET PRACTICE

Target practice for members of the M. I. T. Battalion was held at Walnut Hill last Saturday. The light was very poor owing to a drizzling rain and on account of this the firing was all done on the 200-yard range. About fifty men were present, each one having ten or twelve shots. The best score for ten consecutive shots was 39 out of a possible 50 made by Myer, '10.

TECH SHOW.

Management Urges Students to Help by Contributions.

The management of the Tech Show wishes to announce to those who intend to enter the competition for the literary portion of this year's Show, either the book itself or the lyrics, that all material must be handed in to the General Manager by November 10, 1906. Those intending to hand in Shows must have them as complete as possible as regards lyrics, and the entire manuscript must be finished not merely outlined. Typewritten manuscripts are desired if possible but all will be received.

The Student body should remember that the Tech Show is the most representative activity at the Institute, and only by the loyal support of Tech men can it maintain its high standard. Let every man who has any talent in this direction exert himself. Any information regarding the Show may be obtained from Alexander Macomber '07 General Manager.

HARE AND HOUNDS.

The Hare and Hounds run on Saturday proved the most popular so far this season, despite the inclement weather. The course was at Wellesley, and twenty-eight men made the run of about 5½ miles which was very successful, not withstanding the fact that the ground was wet and slippery, and the trail generally poor. The time of the hares was 52 minutes and that of their pursuers 62 minutes. The hounds who led in were, in order of their finishing: Howland, Ellin, Callaway, Chipman, L. Ellis and H. Allen.

M. A. H. S. MEETING.

Handicap Meet.

With only a few days left before the Annual Fall Handicap Meet it seems that many men do not fully realize its importance. It is the first opportunity which the track team management has to size up the material at hand and approximate the strength of our team. Each year there are many men who claim that they have not the time to train for athletics and the team is consequently weakened. Especially is this true of men who have already won their T and who feel satisfied that they have done enough. This year seems to be no exception to the rule, for although the men who are training are doing good work, more should be out for the team. Now is the time to get in some good work before the winter sets in.

Everyone is given a fair handicap in the coming meet and none should feel timid about entering because he thinks he cannot beat the best man on the team. The standing of Technology in the New England Intercollegiate Athletic Association should be upheld and now is the time to start by entering for the Fall Handicap Meet.

The Tech Union lunch again beat its previous record last Friday, when the attendance was 205.

1908 NOMINATIONS.

The following are the names of the men nominated for the class offices of 1909: President, W. W. King, A. L. Moses, A. K. Mitchell; Vice-President, A. L. Dickerman, P. B. Lord, G. Work has begun on the restoration of St. John's Chapel, in St. Saviour's Church, London, where John Harvard, founder of Harvard University, was christened and the body of his father lies buried. The work is undertaken by Harvard graduates who raised $12,500 for the purpose.

With a view to determine how much America's educational system has helped establish this country in its commercial and industrial position, Alfred Mosley, the millionaire London publisher and philanthropist, will bring a large party of educators to this country this fall. He will pay all expenses of the trip, which will keep them in the United States three or four months, visiting and studying the schools in the large cities.

The University of Minnesota is trying the plan of giving to the Cross Country Club a medal which will be competed for some time in November. This plan is undoubtedly a good one, as it gives a "C. C. C." man something to show for his work.

Yale was in luck not to be scored upon by Pennsylvania State, as they were several times near the Eli line, and once by a queer freak, when a Pennsylvania man had the ball and a clear field in front of him, he turned and ran toward his own goal instead of Yale's.

There is no truth in the rumor that Head Coach Reid of Harvard has been invited to attend secret practice at Yale. No such invitation has been sent him. If one is sent it will probably mean the death knell of Yale secret practice, for the Yale faculty and the undergraduates will not submit to being kept out of secret practice while the Harvard head coach is admitted. When Reid visited the Yale players' dressing rooms after the game a week ago he came uninvited, and the Yale coaches and players are proud to know that they maintained such hospitable quarters that the Harvard coach felt welcome without an invitation. The incident is all the more flattering to Yale hospitality on that acccount.

KODAK EXHIBITION.

Many Tech men are taking advantage of the splendid opportunity offered by the Kodak Exhibition to become more familiar with modern practice in the realms of photography. All styles of Kodak picture-making are shown, from the "Man with the Hoe" variety to the lively scenes of the race course and the automobile track. The lantern pictures are of great interest and beauty and are used to illustrate Dr. Dixon's highly entertaining lecture, "Photography as a Hobby."

The exhibition is being held at Copley Hall, and will continue until the 27th of this month. Lectures are given twice daily, at 3 and 8 P.M. Admission is by ticket, furnished gratis by any of the local Kodak dealers.

Yale is the only one of the big four that has not as yet had its goal line crossed, Princeton being the third one to fall by the wayside.

At Harvard this year the two teams come on to the field together and the players who are to play opposite each other are introduced to each other before the game.

Lieut. Smithers, head coach at West Point, has been ordered to Cuba with his regiment, the 15th cavalry. Lieut. Graves, Lieut. Torney and Lieut. Rockwell will now have charge of the eleven.

Chicago is rejoicing over the new rules. Saturday the university defeated Purdue 39 to 0 in the opening game of the season, while the best her greatest rival, Michigan, could do was 6 to 0 against Ohio State.

Yale football coaches are trying to impress upon the members of their team the fact that the honor they hold of being the last eleven in the country to keep their goal line intact, has no bearing on the question of winning the Harvard and Princeton games, which is the only object of a Yale football season. The coaches have told the players, however, that the feat of holding back such elevens as Holy Cross, the Springfield Training School and Pennsylvania State is no empty honor and that the team has shown just such stamina as will be available many times in the big games of the year.

may not be aware of the correct place to get their Suits, Overcoats, Hats, Neckwear, Shirts, Underwear, Hosiery and Shoes. Older Tech men know that, to be dressed in good "Tech" form, it is necessary to outfit at Shuman's.

The Shuman garments have that snap and quality peculiar to the well-dressed college man's clothing. And the Shuman prices are "Tech" prices.
